Interview

INTERVIEWER

What were your expectations when you decided to partner with a digital marketing company? What did you hope to achieve?

KEVIN LIU

The primary expectation was to see improvements and results. Marketing is measurable, so I wanted to see increased conversions and leads. Additionally, we were looking to outsource our entire marketing department to a company that could provide all the necessary skills and cover our marketing strategy.

INTERVIEWER

Since working with ClickClick Media, what outcomes and results have you achieved?

KEVIN LIU

We have seen an increase in conversions and our sales have improved. One of the standout aspects of working with ClickClick Media is the support they provide. They have a whole team readily available to assist whenever needed, which sets them apart from other marketing companies.

INTERVIEWER

Can you elaborate on how the team at ClickClick Media supports you?

KEVIN LIU

The team is easily accessible and responsive. If I come across any issues with a Google campaign or have any questions, I can raise them immediately through platforms like Slack. We have a group consisting of team members from different departments, and they provide quick responses and solutions. It feels like they are an extension of our business, and we have a marketing department even though we don't have one internally.

INTERVIEWER

Have you considered building an in-house marketing team, or do you prefer outsourcing to ClickClick Media?

KEVIN LIU

Bringing in-house that many talents would require us to be a much bigger company. At the moment, outsourcing to ClickClick Media is the right choice for us.

INTERVIEWER

In three words, how would you describe your experience with ClickClick Media?

KEVIN LIU

Professional, accessible, and helpful.
